
IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

FEBRUARY 26, 1853.

Ordered to be printed.

AMENDMENTS

Intended to be proposed to the act (H. R. 337) "making appropriations for the civil and diplomatic expenses of government for the year ending the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and fifty-four."

By Mr. JAMES, from the Committee on Public Buildings :

1 That there be placed at the disposal of the President of 2 the United States the sum of twenty thousand dollars, to enable 3 him to compensate Clark Mills for the execution of the eques-
4 trian statue of Andrew Jackson, recently placed upon the public
5 square in the city of Washington north of the executive man-6 sion, and to make the same the property of the United States;
7 and that said sum be paid, under the direction of the President,
8 out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated,
9 when a clear and satisfactory title to said statue shall be vested 10 in the United States.

11 For heating and ventilating the Executive mansion, paint-
12 ing the exterior thereof, and painting the walls, ceilings, &c., 13 of the rooms on the first floor, and making other improve-

14 ments and repairs recommended by the architect in his report 14 of February fourth, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, and for 15 the purchase of books for the President's library, twenty-nine 16 thousand five hundred dollars.

Insert after line 1060—

1 Provided, That no part of said building shall be used by 2 the Secretary of the Interior or any bureau thereof, except that 3 of the Patent Office, which shall in the judgment of the Com-
 4 missioner of Patents be necessary for the proper accommoda-
 5 tion of the Patent Office.

1 SEC. —. And be it further enacted, That an officer shall 2 be appointed in the Department of State to be called the Assis-

3 tant Secretary of State, whose salary shall be three thousand 4 dollars per annum, payable in the same manner as that of the 5 Secretary of State, who shall perform all such duties in the office 6 of the Secretary of State belonging to that department, as shall 7 be prescribed by the Secretary of State, or as may be required 8 by law.

By Mr. HUNTER, from the Committee on Finance :

1 SEC. —. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary
 2 of the Treasury be authorized to refund to the legal claimants
 3 for duties that have been paid on goods, wares, and merchan-4 dise that were consumed by fire in the district and port of 5 New York in July, eighteen hundred and forty-five, three 6 hundred thousand dollars, and in the district and port of San 7 Francisco, in the years eighteen hundred and fifty and eigh-
 8 teen hundred and fifty-one, one hundred thousand dollars, sub-9 ject to the restrictions and limitations of the act of July seven, 10 eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, passed for the relief of the 11 sufferers by the fire of December, eighteen hundred and thirty-12 five, in New York ; and the amount of goods destroyed and 13 duties to be refunded, shall be ascertained at said ports respect-14 ively, and be adjusted and repaid thereat, in a manner similar 15 to that which is provided for in the act above referred to, in 16 relation to losses at New York.

1 SEC. —. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary

2 of the Treasury be authorized to remit the duties upon any 3 machinery imported into the United States for spinning and 4 weaving flax, or to refund duties heretofore paid within five 5 years past on such machinery, out of any money in the treas-6 ury not otherwise appropriated: Provided, That it shall be 7 proved to his satisfaction that such machinery is not an article 8 of manufacture in the United States, and has been used by the 9 persons or companies importing it for manufacturing purposes:
 10 And provided further, That they bind themselves to permit 11 inspections and models of such machinery to be made in such 12 manner as may not interfere with their usual occupations.

1 SEC. —. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary
 2 of the Treasury is hereby authorized and required to cancel 3 any outstanding debenture bonds given previously to the first 4 day of July, eighteen hundred and fifty, upon the importation
 5 of foreign coals: Provided, That the said coals have been ex-
 6 ported to a foreign port or consumed upon the outward voyage, 7 and shall not have been consumed in the United States.

1 SEC. —. And be it further enacted, That the third sec-2 tion of the act entitled “ An act making appropriations for the 3 civil and diplomatic expenses of government for the year end-4 ing the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and forty-seven,
 5 and for other purposes,” approved August tenth, eighteen han-6 dred and forty-six, be, and the same is hereby, revived and 7 continued in force for the fiscal year ending the thirtieth of 8 June, eighteen hundred and fifty-four.

1 SEC. —. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary
2 of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized to purchase 3 at the current market price any of the outstanding stocks of 4 the United States as he may think most advisable, from any sur-5 plus funds in the treasury: Provided, That the balance in the 6 treasury shall not at any time be reduced below six millions of 7 dollars.

By Mr. Foot, from the Committee on the Post Office and Post

Roads :

1 SEC. —. And be it further enacted, That the sum of 2 twenty-five thousand dollars be, and is hereby, appropriated for 3 testing the capacity and practical value of the invention for im-
4 provement in the construction of railroad tracks and locomo-5 tive engines, by Colonel James S. French, of Virginia, for the 6 use of the government of the United States, by constructing a 7 line of railroad on said improved plan, under the superintend-8 ence of said James S. French, of such length and between such 9 points as shall fully test its practicability and value, and espe-
10 cially its superiority over all other plans in overcoming heavy 11 grades; and that the same shall be expended under the direction 12 of the Secretary of the Interior, upon the application of the 13 said James S. French.

1 SEC. —. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary

2 of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized to pay, out of 3 the aforesaid twenty-five thousand dollars, to the said James S.
4 French and the persons employed under him, such sums of 5 money as he may deem to be a fair compensation for the service 6 of the said James S. French and the persons employed under 7 him, in constructing and superintending the said line of rail-
8 road authorized by this act.

By Mr. MASON :

1 SEC. —. And be it further enacted, That it shall be law-
2 ful for the Secretary of the Treasury, at any time after the first 3 day of July next, to issue to the State of Texas such portion of 4 the stock mentioned in the first proviso of the fifth article of the 5 first section of the act entitled “An act proposing to the State 6 of Texas the establishment of her northern and western bounda-
7 ries, the relinquishment by the State of all territory claimed 8 by her exterior to said boundaries, and of all her claims upon 9 the United States, and to establish a territorial government for 10 New Mexico,” approved September ninth, one thousand eight 11 hundred and fifty, as shall be equivalent in amount to the re-12 leases of the claims of the creditors of Texas against the United 13 States which shall be then filed at the treasury, as in said article 14 is provided; and in like manner from month to month to issue
15 said stock, equivalent to such like releases as may be thereafter 16 filed, until the whole amount of the five millions reserved by 17 said article is exhausted.

1 SEC. —. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary
 2 of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, directed to pay to the 3 Orange and Alexandria Railroad Company, assignees of the 4 Commonwealth of Virginia, one hundred and twenty thousand
 5 dollars in full, of money advanced by the said Commonwealth 6 to the use of the United States, in erecting public buildings in 7 the District of Columbia, in pursuance of an act of the General
 8 Assembly of said Commonwealth, approved twenty-seventh 9 day of December, seventeen hundred and ninety.

By MR. BRODHEAD :

1 SEC. 1. And be it further enacted, That the provisions 2 of the several laws granting bounty lands to the officers and 3 soldiers who have been engaged in the military service of the 4 United States shall be, and the same are hereby, extended so 5 as to grant to each of the persons therein described a quantity 6 of land which, in addition to that to which he may be entitled 7 under any other law of Congress, shall not, in the whole, ex-8 ceed the quantity of a quarter-section, or one hundred and sixty 9 acres; and each of the officers, non-commissioned officers, mu-10 sicians, and privates, engaged in the naval, marine, gun-boat, 11 or flotilla service, or in defence of the coast, in any of the wars
 12 mentioned in said acts, shall be entitled to the benefits of said 13 laws as thus extended.

1 SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That, after the pas-2 sage of this act, all warrants shall be issued in the names of the 3 persons who rendered the service for which they are granted, 4 whether living or dead, and shall inure to the benefit of the 5 warrantee, if living, and if not, to the heirs specified in the 6 several laws extended by this act; and failing those heirs, to 7 the heirs-at-law of the warrantee, according to the laws of the 8 place in which he had his domicile at the time of his death; 9 and all patents for lands located with any such warrants shall, in 10 like manner, issue to the warrantee; and, in case of his death 11 before the issuing of said patent, the title thereby conveyed 12 shall inure to, and vest in, his heirs as aforesaid, or his or their 13 assignees or devisees, as the case may be: Provided, however,

14 That no person who has perpetrated, or attempted to perpe-15 trate, a fraud on the United States under either of said laws as 16 aforesaid, shall be entitled to the benefit of any of the provisions 17 of this act.

By Mr. FISH :

1 The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and 2 required to establish in the city of New York an office for the 3 receipt, and for the melting, refining, parting, and assaying 4 of gold and silver bullion and foreign coin, and for casting the 5 same into bars, ingots, or discs. The assistant treasurer of the 6 United States in New York shall be treasurer of the said 7 assay office, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall, with the 8 approbation and consent of the President of the United States, 9 appoint such other officers and clerks, and authorize the em-

10 ployment of such assistants, workmen, and servants, as shall be 11 necessary for the proper conduct and arrangement of the said
12 office, and of the business pertaining thereto, at such compen-13 sation as shall be approved by the President : Provided, That 14 the same shall not exceed that allowed for corresponding ser-15 vices, under existing laws, relating to the mint of the United 16 States and its branches.

17 The owner or owners of any gold or silver bullion, in dust 18 or otherwise, or of any foreign coin, shall be entitled to de-19 posit the same in the said office, and the treasurer thereof 20 shall give a receipt, stating the weight and description thereof, 21 in the manner and under the regulations that are or may be 22 provided in like cases of deposits at the mint of the United 23 States with the treasurer thereof. And such bullion shall with-24 out delay be melted, parted, refined, and assayed, and the net
25 value thereof, and of all foreign coin deposited in said office 26 shall be ascertained, and the treasurer shall thereupon forthwith 27 issue his certificate of the net value thereof, payable in coins 28 of the same metal as that deposited, either at the office of the 29 assistant treasurer of the United States, in New York, or at the 30 mint of the United States, at the option of the depositor, to be 31 expressed in the certificate. Which certificates shall be re-32 ceivable at any time within thirty days from the date thereof, 33 in payment of all debts due to the United States, for the full 34 sum therein certified. All gold or silver bullion, and foreign

35 coin deposited, melted, parted, refined, or assayed, as aforesaid, 36 shall, at the option of the depositor, be cast in the said office 37 into bars, ingots, or discs, either of pure metal or of standard 38 fineness, (as the owner may prefer,) with a stamp thereon of 39 such form and device as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of 40 the Treasury, accurately designating its weight and fineness:
41 Provided, That no ingot, bar, or disc shall be cast of less 42 weight than ten ounces, unless the same be of standard fine-43 ness, and of either one, two, three, or five ounces in weight.
44 And all gold or silver bullion, and foreign coin, intended by 45 the depositor to be converted into the coins of the United States, 46 shall, as soon as assayed and its net value certified as above 47 provided, be transferred to the mint of the United States under 48 such directions as shall be made by the Secretary of the 49 Treasury, and at the expense of the contingent fund of the 50 mint, and shall there be coined. And the Secretary of the 51 Treasury is hereby authorized, with the approval of the Presi-
52 dent of the United States, to make the necessary regulations
53 for the adjustment of the accounts between the respective offi-
54 cers, upon the transfer of any bullion or coin between the assay 55 office, the mint, and assistant treasurer in New York.

56 The operations of melting, parting, refining, and assaying 57 in the said office, shall be under the general directions of the 58 director of the mint in subordination to the Secretary of the 59 Treasury; and it shall be the duty of the said director to pre-

60 scribe such regulation, and to order such tests as shall be re-61 quisite to insure faithfulness, accuracy, and uniformity in the 62 operations of the said office.

63 The laws of the United States for the government of the 64 mint and its officers in relation to the receipt, payment, and 65 custody of deposits, and settlement of accounts, the duties and 66 responsibilities of officers and others employed therein, the oath 67 to be taken and the bond and sureties to be given by them, (as 68 far as the same may be applicable,) shall extend to the assay 69 office hereby established, and to its officers, assistants, clerks, 70 workmen, and others employed therein.

71 The same charges shall be made and demanded at the 72 said assay office for refining, parting, casting into bars, ingots, 73 or discs, and for alloy, as are or shall be made and demanded
74 at the mint; and no other charges shall be made to depositors 75 than by law are authorized to be made at the mint; and the 76 amount received from the charges hereby authorized, shall be 77 accounted for and appropriated for defraying the contingent
78 expenses of the said office.

79 For the purpose of carrying the foregoing provisions into 80 effect, the sum of thousand dollars, in addition to the 81 charges authorized to be received, is hereby appropriated out of 82 any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated. And 83 the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to procure, by rent,

84 lease, or otherwise, a building or apartments, in the city of New 85 York, suitable for the operations of the said office, unless he 86 shall be of opinion that suitable apartments in the custom-house 87 in that city may be assigned for this purpose. And he is also 88 hereby authorized and directed to procure the necessary ma-89 chinery and implements for the proper carrying on of the 90 operations and business of the said office.

91 The salary of the assistant treasurer of the United States 92 in New York, from and after the time that the said office shall 93 be opened and in operation, shall be thousand dollars 94 per annum instead of the sum now allowed.
